

If the page name has written with orange, it means except admins, everybody else can open this page.

If the page name has written with green, it means only registered user can open this page.

If the page name has written with red, it means only admins can open these pages.